SPEAKER
PRESENTED BY

Patrick developed his enthusiasm for the outdoors at an early age. He grew up fishing, hunting, camping, and in the Boy Scouts before spending 19 years working in law enforcement. Patrick attended a five day class taught by Randall's Adventure and Training in 2008 and was asked to come back as an assistant instructor. He spent several years teaching part time before coming on full-time in January 2013. Since then, he has taught numerous classes both stateside and in the Amazon jungle of Peru.

Main Dinner and Show 3:00 pm

Dolly Parton's Smoky Mountain Adventures Dinner & Show is a riveting, high energy and romantic production that takes guests on an exciting journey back to a time that tells a tale of Dolly's own family history. Adventures and a spectacular old-fashioned Hootenanny feast await as the mountains are filled with high-flying action, music and more!

The great traditions of the Smoky Mountain people are proud and steeped in history. Food, Faith, and Family is the fiber that is woven throughout these mountains along with rivalry and romance.

Our story is filled with music, laughter, edge-of-your-seat special effects, thrilling specialty acts, competitions, and romance– the type that brings families together. Acrobatic performers will display their abilities on aerial silks suspended three stories above the stage; perform a balletic display above the stage on suspended hoops called Lyras; and will defy gravity in and on the amazing Electro-wheel, all within the context of Parton's exciting story.

Arrive early and enjoy the spirit of thrills and fun. Inside Bass Mercantile, kids of all ages can get a makeover and become a hearty Mountaineer or a beautiful Mountain Princess! We have snacks, music and more.
